

Quite simply, this statement says in Latin:

Bidden, or unbidden, God is present

Carl Jung had this message on his door, and I have it on my door... and my computer!

It is a sweet reminder, and a lovely house-blessing or a gift for someone you care about.

As an additional resource: the PBS catalogue now sells its own version of the same message on an actual plaque. It looks completely different than this one, but is also quite lovely.

It is good and true message and it feels awesome be reminded of it every day!

Enjoy!

FRAMING NOTES:

Print this page with highest resolution on thick paper or card stock.

It fits nicely into a Panoramic photo frame which you can pick up for under $10 at most Christmas Tree Shops, Hallmark Stores or the like....
